

A PRINTABLE STUDY JOURNAL

8 WEEKS OF ENGLISH

B1-B2 · PASSIVE ENGLISH → ACTIVE ENGLISH

NAME

START DATE

END DATE

USE ENGLISH. DON'T JUST STUDY ENGLISH.

How to use this workbook

CORE • 30–40 min

Finish the CORE tasks and the day is done. Nothing is missing, nothing is owed. Every day has four of them.

BONUS • 10–20 min

Extra practice for days you have time and energy. Skipping every bonus for eight weeks still works.

The four phases

- 1–2 Activate — wake up the English you have.
- 3–4 Express — longer answers, opinions, stories.
- 5–6 Think in English — translate less.
- 7–8 Fluency — speak under real pressure.

Your week: 12 pages

Week page · grammar cheat sheet
 Mon speak · Tue listen · Wed read
 Thu speaking day · Fri grammar
 Sat sound · Sun review
 Writing page · phrase log · week review

Five rules that make it work

- ☐ Speak out loud every day, even for two minutes. Silent study does not count.
- ☐ Write your own version of every phrase. Borrowed sentences do not stick.
- ☐ Record yourself twice a week and listen back. That is where corrections happen.
- ☐ Finish the sentence even when it is wrong. Fluency first, then accuracy.
- ☐ Miss a day, skip it. Never repeat a day and never restart the week.

How the phrase log works

Phrases only go in the log if you met them for real — in listening, reading, a conversation, or as a word you wanted and could not find. Then you review at +1, +3, +7 and +14 days. Tick a box only when you retrieved the phrase without looking. Recognising it does not count.

Your AI correction prompt

“Correct my English but keep my meaning and my level. First show my mistakes, then explain the three most important recurring problems, then give me a corrected version. Do not rewrite everything in advanced English.”

Use it on every writing page. AI is optional everywhere in this book.

8 weeks at a glance

WEEK 01

ACTIVATE

Everyday you

Grammar: Present simple vs present continuous · Speaking: 60–90 sec monologue · Writing: 100–150 w, your normal day

WEEK 02

ACTIVATE

People and places

Grammar: Comparing things like a speaker, not a textbook · Speaking: 2 min description · Writing: 120–150 w, a person or place

WEEK 03

EXPRESS

Opinions and preferences

Grammar: Opinion structures and hedging · Speaking: 2–3 min opinion · Writing: 130–180 w, opinion post

WEEK 04

EXPRESS

Stories

Grammar: Narrative tenses, and present perfect vs past simple · Speaking: 3 min story · Writing: 150–180 w, personal story

WEEK 05

THINK

Work and problems

Grammar: Modals for politeness and for guessing · Speaking: problem → solution · Writing: 150–200 w, work message

WEEK 06

THINK

Plans, guesses and what-ifs

Grammar: Future forms and the three conditionals · Speaking: hypotheticals, 3 min · Writing: 170–200 w, what-if scenario

WEEK 07

FLUENCY

Discussing ideas

Grammar: Relative clauses and linking ideas · Speaking: 3–5 min argument · Writing: 180–220 w, argue a position

WEEK 08

FLUENCY

Unscripted

Grammar: Personal error audit — your own grammar, not a syllabus · Speaking: 5+ min unscripted · Writing: 200–250 w, free writing

What you are aiming at on day 56

Speaking — 3–5 minutes on an unfamiliar topic, unprepared.

Repair — missing word? explain around it, don't switch language.

Listening — main ideas and most detail without leaning on subtitles.

Conversation — 5–10 minutes without planning each sentence.

Stories — a past story with chronology a listener can follow.

Writing — 180–250 coherent words, alone, no translator.

This is a functional target, not a CEFR promise. Eight weeks of consistent daily production makes retrieval faster and speech more automatic. It does not certify a level.

BASELINE — RECORD YOURSELF

Do all four tasks today, before you read any other page. Save every file in one folder called DAY 1 and do not listen back to them until week 8. Without this page you will have no way to prove you improved.

A · SPEAKING — 2 minutes, no preparation

FILE NAME

Press record and answer: “Tell me about yourself, your life right now, and one thing you want to change.”
Start within five seconds. Do not stop, do not restart, do not delete.

I SPOKE FOR TIMES I STOPPED TIMES I USED MY OWN LANGUAGE

B · STORY — 2 minutes

FILE NAME

Record a story about something that actually happened to you in the last month. Beginning, middle, end.
Past tenses, no notes.

I SPOKE FOR THE TENSE THAT BROKE

D · LISTENING — how much do you catch today?

Search YouTube for “native English conversation everyday life”. Play four minutes with no subtitles, no pausing. Then estimate honestly.

I UNDERSTOOD ABOUT % WHAT MADE IT HARD

A 7x5 grid of circles, each containing a number from 1 to 5. The numbers are arranged in columns: the first column has seven 1s, the second has seven 2s, the third has seven 3s, the fourth has seven 4s, and the fifth has seven 5s. This grid is used for a dot marker activity where students place a dot on a circle and then draw a line to connect it to the next circle in a sequence.

WEEK 01

ACTIVATE

Everyday you — routines, habits, the life you already live

THIS WEEK'S ONE PROMISE

You will speak English out loud on all seven days, including the day you do not feel like it.

GRAMMAR

Present simple vs present continuous

SPEAKING TARGET

60–90 sec monologue

WRITING

100–150 w, your normal day

WEEK OF

7 DAYS

Present simple vs present continuous

Present simple = things that are generally true: habits, routines, facts, jobs. Present continuous = happening right now, or a temporary situation around now. Most B1 learners know both forms but pick the wrong one under pressure — that is what today fixes.

THE FORMULA

HABIT: I / you / we / they + verb · he / she / it + verb-s
RIGHT NOW or TEMPORARY: am / is / are + verb-ing

THE MISTAKE ALMOST EVERYONE MAKES

~~I am working in a hospital since 2019.~~

I work in a hospital. (permanent) · I'm working from home this month. (temporary)

HOW IT SOUNDS IN REAL ENGLISH

- I work in logistics, but this week I'm covering for my manager.
- She usually cycles to work. Today she's taking the bus — it's raining.
- We don't normally eat out. We're trying to save money.
- He's always losing his keys. (present continuous + always = it annoys me)
- I'm not sleeping well at the moment.

A • PRACTISE — complete each one

- 1 Every morning I _____ (check) my phone before anything else. _____
- 2 Right now I _____ (sit) at _____
- 3 She _____ (not usually / work) on Fridays, but this Friday she _____
- 4 They _____ (build) a new station near my flat — it _____
- 5 I _____ (try) to stop _____

B • FIND THE ERROR — one word is wrong in each

- 1 I am going to the gym three times a week. _____
- 2 What do you do right now? Are you free? _____
- 3 She is speaking four languages. _____

C • MAKE IT YOURS — three sentences about your real life

D • SAY IT WITHOUT THINKING. Cover section C. Say your three sentences out loud from memory, then say three new ones. Repeat until none of them need a pause in the middle. This is the only step that makes the grammar automatic.

♥ TODAY'S PHRASES — WRITE YOUR OWN VERSION UNDERNEATH

- ① I usually get up around...

② The first thing I do is...

3 After that I tend to...

4 By the end of the day I'm...

☆ CORE

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Read the four phrases out loud twice each, then write your own version on the line under each one.
- ☐ Say your four sentences out loud without looking at the page.
- ☐ Talk for 60 seconds about your whole day. Do not stop, do not restart.
- ☐ Write the one word you were missing at the bottom of the page, then look it up.

BONUS

10-20 MIN • OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Record the 60 seconds and listen back once. Write down one thing you would change.
- ☐ BONUS · ChatGPT Voice: “Ask me five simple questions about my daily routine. Wait for my full answer before the next question.”

MY DAY, IN MY OWN WORDS

Four sentences using today's phrases. Real details, real times.

TODAY'S GOAL Catch how people describe ordinary days in unscripted speech.

♥ LISTEN FOR THESE — TICK EACH ONE YOU HEAR, THEN WRITE THE FULL SENTENCE

1 It depends on the day, but...

2 Most mornings I...

3 I'm not really a morning person.

4 I try to... but it doesn't always happen.

WHAT TO FIND “native English conversation daily routine”

YouTube · Easy English street interviews or BBC Learning English · length: 4–5 min, clear speech

1 listen once, no subtitles

2 never pause

3 write what you understood

4 listen again

5 catch 3–5 chunks

6 now check the transcript

7 what did you miss, and why

8 shadow 20–40 seconds

9 retell it without looking

☆ CORE

30–40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Work through steps 1–9 above in order. Steps 1–3 before you touch the subtitles.
- ☐ Write 3–5 chunks you caught into this week's phrase log — whole phrases, not single words.
- ☐ Shadow 20–40 seconds: play, pause, copy the speaker exactly, including the rhythm.
- ☐ Retell what the clip was about out loud, 30 seconds, nothing on screen.

BONUS

10–20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Listen to the same clip once more while doing something else. Notice what you catch now.
- ☐ Find a second clip on the same topic and see whether the same chunks come back.

WHAT I HEARD

Phrases, half-sentences, fillers — anything that sounded natural rather than correct.

💖 TODAY'S PHRASES — WRITE YOUR OWN VERSION UNDERNEATH

- 4 In other words...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Read one short text about daily life — BBC News, a blog post, a Reddit thread. 300–500 words, start to finish, no dictionary on the first pass.
- ☐ Underline five chunks worth keeping. Put them in the phrase log.
- ☐ Close the text. Retell it out loud from memory in three sentences.
- ☐ Retell it again, faster, with no notes at all.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Write the three-sentence retell down and compare it with the original. What did you drop?
- ☐ Read one paragraph out loud at the speed you would speak it.

Beginning, middle, and the part that stayed with you.

SPEAKING DAY

TODAY'S GOAL Speak for 90 seconds on a question you have not seen before.

♥ TODAY'S PHRASES — WRITE YOUR OWN VERSION UNDERNEATH

1 This week has been...

2 The thing is...

3 I keep meaning to...

4 Honestly, I have no idea.

☆ CORE

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ DRILL · 30-SECOND ANSWER. Read the question, start within five seconds: "What is a normal Thursday for you?" Answer for 30 seconds.
- ☐ Same question again, 90 seconds this time. Add detail rather than repeating yourself.
- ☐ Use at least three of this week's phrases on purpose while you speak.
- ☐ When you get stuck, describe the idea another way. Never switch language mid-sentence.

BONUS

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ BONUS · ChatGPT Voice: "Have a 10-minute B1-B2 conversation with me about everyday routines. Do not correct every mistake. At the end tell me my three most frequent mistakes, three expressions I could have used, and one pronunciation issue."
- ☐ Say the hardest sentence of the day three more times, slowly, until it comes out whole.

WHERE I GOT STUCK

Write the sentences you could not finish — then finish them here, properly.

♥ TODAY'S PHRASES — WRITE YOUR OWN VERSION UNDERNEATH

- 1 I work... / I'm working...
- 2 I always... / I'm currently...
- 3 She lives... / She's staying...
- 4 We usually... / We're trying...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Go back to this week's cheat sheet. Do sections A and B if you have not yet.
- ☐ Section C: write three sentences about your real life, each one using both forms.
- ☐ Section D: cover the page and say them out loud. Then say three brand-new ones.
- ☐ Say each pair fast, one after the other, until neither of them needs a pause.

10-20 MIN • OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Review · +3 DAYS: cover Monday's phrases and retrieve them from memory. Tick the +3 boxes.
- ☐ Write five more pairs, then delete the page. The point was saying them.

Real facts about your real life. No textbook people.

SOUND NATURAL

TODAY'S GOAL Fix where the stress falls in your sentences.

♥ SAY THESE — THE CAPITALS ARE WHERE THE BEAT LANDS

1 I usually get UP around SEVEN.

2 The FIRST thing I DO is...

3 It DEPENDS on the DAY.

4 I'm NOT really a MORNING person.

RECOGNISE ONLY — don't copy these kinda, wanna, gonna — you will hear these constantly.

You do not need to say them.

Understanding them is the whole job today.

PRACTISE SAYING — aim for this

I WORK in a hospital. (not: i work IN a hospital)

It DEPENDS on the day.

Content words loud, small words quick and quiet.

☆ CORE

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Find a native version of each sentence: search the phrase on YouGlish, or ask ChatGPT Voice "Say this sentence naturally three times: slow, normal, conversational."
- ☐ LISTEN → COPY → RECORD → COMPARE. Do all four for each sentence.
- ☐ Say each one inside a longer sentence about today.
- ☐ Pick the one sound or beat that gave you away and drill it ten times.

BONUS

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Record 30 seconds of Monday's monologue again and listen for the rhythm, not the words.
- ☐ Read one paragraph out loud, tapping the table on every stressed word.

SOUND NOTES

What your mouth had to do differently. Be physical about it.

REVIEW + RESET

TODAY'S GOAL Prove to yourself that week one actually happened.

♥ TODAY'S PHRASES — WRITE YOUR OWN VERSION UNDERNEATH

1 This week I managed to...

.....

2 What I found difficult was...

.....

3 Next week I want to...

.....

4 I'm starting to...

.....

☆ CORE

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Review · +7 DAYS: cover the phrase log, retrieve every chunk out loud, tick only what came without looking.
- ☐ Choose the five phrases you must use out loud next week. Write them in the log footer.
- ☐ Speak for two minutes about your week. In English, alone, no notes.
- ☐ Fill in the week review page: the seven numbers, honestly.

BONUS

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Colour in this week on the 56-day poster and set out next week's pages.
- ☐ Write 60 words about the best moment of the week. No corrections.

WEEK ONE, OUT LOUD

Write down the two-minute summary you just said. Not a better version — the one you said.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

What I like about it is...

- ☐ verb tense
- ☐ prepositions
- ☐ repeated vocabulary
- ☐ articles
- ☐ sentence linking
- ☐ unnatural translation

"Correct my English but keep my meaning and my level. First show my mistakes, then explain the three most important recurring problems, then give me a corrected version. Do not rewrite everything in advanced English."

SAY EACH ONE OUT LOUD TOO

Only phrases you actually met — in listening, reading, a conversation, or a word you wanted and could not find.
Whole chunks, not single words. Tick a review box only when you retrieved it without looking at the page.

HOW TO REVIEW — pick one, never just re-read

Cover it and recall · finish a sentence with it · use it in a brand-new sentence · work it into a 60-second monologue · answer a question with it.

HOW TO REVIEW — pick one, never just re-read

Cover it and recall · finish a sentence with it · use it in a brand-new sentence · work it into a 60-second monologue · answer a question with it.

FIVE I MUST USE OUT LOUD NEXT WEEK

.....

.....

.....

FIVE I MUST USE OUT LOUD NEXT WEEK

.....

.....

.....

COMING BACK THIS WEEK · nothing yet — this is week one — find those pages, cover the English, and retrieve five of them out loud before Sunday.

MON

TUE

WED

THU

FRI

SAT

SUN

Hardest sound or rhythm feature

Copy your five phrases onto next Monday's page. If you did not use last week's five, they come with you again.

WEEK 02

ACTIVATE

People and places — describing what is around you

THIS WEEK'S ONE PROMISE

You will describe things without pointing, without your phone, and without your first language.

GRAMMAR

Comparing things like a speaker, not a textbook

SPEAKING TARGET

2 min description

WRITING

120–150 w, a person or place

WEEK OF

7 DAYS

Comparing things like a speaker, not a textbook

B1 learners compare correctly but flatly: bigger, better, more expensive. B2 speakers add degree — how much bigger. That single move makes descriptions sound alive, and it is the difference today.

THE FORMULA

a bit / slightly / much / far / a lot + comparative + than nowhere near as + adjective + as by far the + superlative

THE MISTAKE ALMOST EVERYONE MAKES

~~My town is more quiet than London and the most cheap.~~

My town is much quieter than London — and by far the cheapest place I've lived.

HOW IT SOUNDS IN REAL ENGLISH

- It's a lot quieter than my old street.
- Nowhere near as busy as people think.
- She's by far the most patient person in the team.
- Slightly more expensive, but far better.
- It's not as far as it looks on the map.

A • PRACTISE — complete each one

- 1 My flat is _____ (much / small) than my parents' house. _____
- 2 This café is nowhere near _____
- 3 He's _____ (by far) person I know. _____
- 4 It's _____ (slightly) than last year, but _____
- 5 Winter here is _____ than _____

B • FIND THE ERROR — one word is wrong in each

- 1 It is more cheaper than the city centre. _____
- 2 She is the most nice person in my office. _____
- 3 My street is not so busy as before. _____

C • MAKE IT YOURS — three sentences about your real life

D • SAY IT WITHOUT THINKING. Cover section C. Say your three sentences out loud from memory, then say three new ones. Repeat until none of them need a pause in the middle. This is the only step that makes the grammar automatic.

1 He comes across as...

2 She's the kind of person who...

3 What I like about him is...

4 He can be a bit...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Write your own version of each phrase, about a real person.
- ☐ Describe two people out loud, 60 seconds each: one you love, one who annoys you.
- ☐ DRILL · PARAPHRASE. Describe each person's job without naming it. Make the listener guess.
- ☐ Use last week's five carried-forward phrases at least once between the two descriptions.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Describe a third person in 30 seconds only. Cutting is the exercise.
- ☐ BONUS · ChatGPT Voice: “I’ll describe someone I know. Ask me five follow-up questions to build a fuller picture.”

Be specific. “Nice” and “friendly” tell a reader nothing.

TODAY'S GOAL Hear how people describe places without listing facts.

♥ LISTEN FOR THESE — TICK EACH ONE YOU HEAR, THEN WRITE THE FULL SENTENCE

1 It's quite a lively area.

.....

2 There's not much going on.

.....

3 It's known for...

.....

4 You'd like it — it's very...

.....

WHAT TO FIND “walking tour English describing neighbourhood”

YouTube · Easy English, walking tours, or a travel vlogger speaking naturally · length: 5–6 min, normal speed

1 listen once, no subtitles

2 never pause

3 write what you understood

4 listen again

5 catch 3–5 chunks

6 now check the transcript

7 what did you miss, and why

8 shadow 20–40 seconds

9 retell it without looking

☆ CORE

30–40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Steps 1–9 above. This week the clip is a minute longer and slightly faster.
- ☐ Collect 5 chunks that describe atmosphere rather than facts. Into the phrase log.
- ☐ Shadow 30 seconds. Match the pauses, not just the words.
- ☐ Retell the clip out loud in 45 seconds without looking.

BONUS

10–20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Listen again at 1.1x speed. Note what you lose.
- ☐ Review · +1 DAY: retrieve yesterday's chunks out loud and tick the +1 boxes.

PLACE PHRASES

Everything you heard about what a place feels like, not what it contains.

READ + RETELL

TODAY'S GOAL Retell a description in your vocabulary, not the writer's.

♥ TODAY'S PHRASES — WRITE YOUR OWN VERSION UNDERNEATH

1 The writer describes it as...

.....

2 To give you an idea...

.....

3 It reminded me of...

.....

4 Picture a...

.....

☆ CORE

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Read one description of a place: a travel piece, a hotel review, a city subreddit. 400-600 words.
- ☐ Underline five chunks. Log them. Do not log single adjectives.
- ☐ Retell it once with the text in front of you, once with it face down.
- ☐ Now describe a place YOU know using three chunks you just stole.

BONUS

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Rewrite the opening paragraph in your own words, half the length.
- ☐ Read the best paragraph out loud twice.

IN MY OWN WORDS

Same place, your vocabulary. Nothing copied word for word.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

① I've lived here for...

② The best thing about it is...

③ What it really needs is...

④ It's a five-minute walk from...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ DRILL · EXPAND IT. Describe your home in one sentence. Then 30 seconds. Then two minutes.
- ☐ Stand up and give a spoken tour of the room you are in, out loud, walking around it.
- ☐ Use three degree comparisons from the cheat sheet while you speak.
- ☐ Record the two-minute version. Do not re-record it.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ BONUS · ChatGPT Voice: “I’ll describe my neighbourhood. Then ask me to compare it with a place you invent. Keep it conversational.”
- ☐ Listen back and count the times you stopped. Write the number down.

Write the tour you gave, plus the words you were missing while giving it.

① It's a lot quieter than...

② Nowhere near as busy as...

③ By far the best...

④ Slightly more expensive than...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Cheat sheet sections A and B if you have not done them yet.
- ☐ Section C: three comparisons between two places you know well.
- ☐ Section D: cover the page, say them, then say three new ones about people.
- ☐ Push past “bigger” and “better” — every sentence needs a degree word.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Review · +3 DAYS: retrieve Monday and Tuesday's chunks. Tick the +3 boxes.
- ☐ Compare this week with last week out loud, five sentences.

Two real places or two real people. Degree word in every sentence.

SOUND NATURAL

TODAY'S GOAL Move the stress and change the meaning on purpose.

♥ SAY THESE — THE CAPITALS CARRY THE MEANING

1 It's not THAT far.

2 I said a LITTLE bit.

3 THIS is the one I meant.

4 It WAS good — once.

RECOGNISE ONLY — don't copy these a lotta, sorta, dunno — hear them, do not build habits on them.

Fast speech eats small words. That is normal.

Your job is to decode, not to imitate.

PRACTISE SAYING — aim for this

It's not THAT far.

I said a LITTLE bit.

THIS is the one I meant.

Same words, four meanings.

☆ CORE

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Say each sentence twice, moving the stress to a different word. Hear the meaning change.
- ☐ Check yourself against real speakers: search each phrase on YouGlish.
- ☐ LISTEN → COPY → RECORD → COMPARE for all four.
- ☐ Say your two favourite ones inside a description of your street.

BONUS

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Take one sentence and record five versions, each stressing a different word.
- ☐ Ask ChatGPT Voice: "Say this sentence stressing a different word each time and tell me what each version means."

SOUND NOTES

Which word carried the meaning in each version, and why.

① I've noticed that...

② It's getting easier to...

3 I still can't...

4 From now on I'll...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Review · +7 DAYS on this week's log, and +14 DAYS on week 1's log. Retrieve, do not re-read.
- ☐ Choose five phrases for next week. Any of week 1's five you never used come with you again.
- ☐ Speak for two minutes comparing week one with week two.
- ☐ Fill in the week review page. Compare the seven numbers with last week's.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Colour in the poster. Look at the two rows side by side.
- ☐ Write 80 words on the English you had forgotten you knew.

English you had forgotten you knew. List it — this is the whole point of Activate.

Only phrases you actually met — in listening, reading, a conversation, or a word you wanted and could not find.
Whole chunks, not single words. Tick a review box only when you retrieved it without looking at the page.

HOW TO REVIEW — pick one, never just re-read

Cover it and recall · finish a sentence with it · use it in a brand-new sentence · work it into a 60-second monologue · answer a question with it.

HOW TO REVIEW — pick one, never just re-read

Cover it and recall · finish a sentence with it · use it in a brand-new sentence · work it into a 60-second monologue · answer a question with it.

FIVE I MUST USE OUT LOUD NEXT WEEK

FIVE I MUST USE OUT LOUD NEXT WEEK

COMING BACK THIS WEEK · week 1 phrases — find those pages, cover the English, and retrieve five of them out loud before Sunday.

MON

TUE

WED

THU

FRI

SAT

SUN

Hardest sound or rhythm feature

Copy your five phrases onto next Monday's page. If you did not use last week's five, they come with you again.

WEEK 03

EXPRESS

Opinions and preferences — saying what you actually think

THIS WEEK'S ONE PROMISE

Every opinion you give this week arrives with a reason attached, in the same breath.

GRAMMAR

Opinion structures and hedging

SPEAKING TARGET

2–3 min opinion

WRITING

130–180 w, opinion post

WEEK OF

7 DAYS

Opinion structures and hedging

A flat “I think it’s good” closes a conversation. Real opinions come with a frame (how sure you are) and a reason. Hedging is not weakness — it is what lets you disagree without a fight, and it buys you thinking time.

THE FORMULA

STRONG: I’m convinced that... · There’s no question that... NEUTRAL: I’d say... · It seems to me that... · I find it... SOFT: I’m not entirely convinced... · I could be wrong, but...

THE MISTAKE ALMOST EVERYONE MAKES

~~I am agree with you. I think is a good idea because is cheap.~~

I agree with you — I’d say it’s a good idea, mainly because it’s cheap.

HOW IT SOUNDS IN REAL ENGLISH

- I’d say it comes down to money, really.
- It seems to me that nobody actually asked the users.
- I’m not entirely convinced that’s the reason.
- I find it hard to believe they didn’t know.
- To be fair, they didn’t have much time.

A • PRACTISE — complete each one

- 1 I’d say the main problem is _____, mainly because _____
- 2 It seems to me that people _____
- 3 I’m not entirely convinced _____ because _____
- 4 I find it hard to _____ that _____
- 5 For me it comes down to _____

B • FIND THE ERROR — one word is wrong in each

- 1 I am agree with your opinion. _____
- 2 In my opinion, I think it is too expensive. _____
- 3 I am not agree because is not useful. _____

C • MAKE IT YOURS — three sentences about your real life

D • SAY IT WITHOUT THINKING. Cover section C. Say your three sentences out loud from memory, then say three new ones. Repeat until none of them need a pause in the middle. This is the only step that makes the grammar automatic.

1 Personally, I'd say...

2 The reason I say that is...

3 I'd rather... than...

4 For me it comes down to...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Pick three topics: your city's transport, remote work, one rule at your job. Write nothing yet.
- ☐ For each one, speak the pattern out loud: OPINION → REASON → EXAMPLE. About 40 seconds each.
- ☐ Now write your best of the three, three sentences only.
- ☐ DRILL · REPAIR IT. Say it again; when you make a mistake, correct it and carry on without restarting.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Add a fourth topic you have no opinion about. Invent one anyway and defend it.
- ☐ BONUS · ChatGPT Voice: “Give me a B1-B2 opinion question. After my answer, ask why. Do not accept a one-sentence reason.”

Opinion, reason, example. Three times. Reasons must be specific.

TODAY'S GOAL Hear exactly how people soften and strengthen what they think.

♥ LISTEN FOR THESE — TICK EACH ONE YOU HEAR, THEN WRITE THE FULL SENTENCE

1 I'm not entirely convinced.

.....

2 To be fair...

.....

3 I completely agree with...

.....

4 That's a good point, but...

.....

WHAT TO FIND “two people discussing opinions English podcast”

YouTube or a podcast app · TED-Ed comments, interviews, discussion podcasts · length: 6–7 min, two speakers

1 listen once, no subtitles

2 never pause

3 write what you understood

4 listen again

5 catch 3–5 chunks

6 now check the transcript

7 what did you miss, and why

8 shadow 20–40 seconds

9 retell it without looking

☆ CORE

30–40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Steps 1–9 above. Two speakers this week, so track who thinks what.
- ☐ Collect 5 chunks used to agree, disagree or hedge. Log them.
- ☐ Sort them: which sounded strong, which sounded careful? Write S or C next to each.
- ☐ Shadow 30 seconds of the more careful speaker.

BONUS

10–20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Review · +1 DAY on yesterday's chunks.
- ☐ Listen once more and note every time someone disagreed without saying “no”.

AGREE / DISAGREE

Everything you heard, sorted by how strong it felt.

① The main argument is...

② On the other hand...

3 I can see why, but...

④ Where I disagree is...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Read one opinion piece — a newspaper column, a long comment, a blog post. 500–700 words.
- ☐ Summarise the writer’s argument out loud in three sentences, fairly.
- ☐ Now argue the opposite side out loud for 60 seconds, whether you believe it or not.
- ☐ Log five chunks. Include at least two that link ideas.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Write two sentences the writer would use against you.
- ☐ Read the strongest paragraph out loud as if you had written it.

Their argument on top, yours underneath. Be fair to theirs first.

① Let me put it another way.

② What I'm trying to say is...

③ Take my job, for example.

④ I could be wrong, but...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Pick something you genuinely dislike. Speak for two minutes on why.
- ☐ Same topic again, three minutes, adding one concession: "To be fair..."
- ☐ DRILL · ONE-MINUTE NO-STOP. New topic, no prep, keep going even when the grammar slips.
- ☐ Use three of this week's carried-forward phrases while you talk.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ BONUS · ChatGPT Voice: “Pretend you disagree with my opinion. Have a natural debate with me for five minutes. Push back, but stay friendly.”
- ☐ Record the three-minute version and count your silent pauses.

Write your strongest version — after saying it out loud, never before.

① I find it hard to believe that...

② I'd say it's more about...

③ It seems to me that...

④ I don't see the point of...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Cheat sheet A and B. Pay attention to the “I am agree” trap — it is the most common B1 error in this area.
- ☐ Section C: three opinions about your own field or city.
- ☐ Section D: cover the page, say them, then say three new ones with a softer frame.
- ☐ Say each opinion twice: once strong, once hedged. Notice which one you would actually use.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Review · +3 DAYS on this week's chunks.
- ☐ Take one opinion and write it three ways: strong, neutral, soft.

Strong opinions only — weak ones teach you nothing.

SOUND NATURAL

TODAY'S GOAL Make disagreement sound friendly rather than cold.

♥ SAY THESE — TWICE EACH: ONCE WARM, ONCE COLD

1 Hmm, I'm not sure about that.

2 Really? I'd have said...

3 Yeah, no, exactly.

4 Well, it depends.

RECOGNISE ONLY — don't copy these

Yeah, no, exactly — sounds contradictory, means “I agree”.

Rising tone on a statement = checking, not asking.
You will hear all of this. Decoding it is enough.

PRACTISE SAYING — aim for this

Hmm, I'm not sure about that. (fall, then warm up)
Really? I'd have said... (genuine rise)
Well, it depends. (slow, no edge)

☆ CORE

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Say each one warmly, then coldly. Record both. Keep only the warm version.
- ☐ Check against real speakers on YouGlish, or ask ChatGPT Voice for a natural version.
- ☐ LISTEN → COPY → RECORD → COMPARE.
- ☐ Write down what physically changed: pitch, speed, or where you paused.

BONUS

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Disagree with three statements out loud, all warmly.
- ☐ Play the cold versions to yourself. That is what a bad day sounds like in English.

SOUND NOTES

Pitch, speed, pause — which one did the work?

1 I've changed my mind about...

2 I still think...

③ What I couldn't explain was...

④ This week taught me...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Review · +7 DAYS on this week, +14 DAYS on week 2. Retrieve out loud, tick only what came clean.
- ☐ Choose five phrases for next week.
- ☐ Speak for 2-3 minutes on the opinion you defended best this week.
- ☐ Fill in the week review page and compare the numbers with week 1.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Colour in the poster.
- ☐ Write 100 words on an opinion you changed this week.

The opinion you would now happily say to a stranger.

Only phrases you actually met — in listening, reading, a conversation, or a word you wanted and could not find.
Whole chunks, not single words. Tick a review box only when you retrieved it without looking at the page.

Cover it and recall · finish a sentence with it · use it in a brand-new sentence · work it into a 60-second monologue · answer a question with it.

COMING BACK THIS WEEK · weeks 1-2 phrases — find those pages, cover the English, and retrieve five of them out loud before Sunday.

MON

TUE

WED

THU

FRI

SAT

SUN

Hardest sound or rhythm feature

Copy your five phrases onto next Monday's page. If you did not use last week's five, they come with you again.

WEEK 04

EXPRESS

Stories — telling what happened without falling apart

THIS WEEK'S ONE PROMISE

You will tell one story out loud every day, and every day it gets shorter and clearer.

GRAMMAR

Narrative tenses, and present perfect vs past simple

SPEAKING TARGET

3 min story

WRITING

150–180 w, personal story

WEEK OF

7 DAYS

Narrative tenses, and present perfect vs past simple

Stories need three tenses working together: past simple for the events, past continuous for the background, past perfect for what happened before. Separately: use past simple when the time is finished (yesterday, last week), present perfect when it is not (this week, ever, so far).

THE FORMULA

BACKGROUND: was / were + verb-ing
EVENTS: past simple
EARLIER THAN THAT: had + past participle
FINISHED TIME → past simple
UNFINISHED TIME → have / has + participle

THE MISTAKE ALMOST EVERYONE MAKES

~~I have seen him yesterday. When I arrived, he already left.~~

I saw him yesterday. When I arrived, he had already left.

HOW IT SOUNDS IN REAL ENGLISH

- I was walking home when my phone died.
- By the time we got there, they'd already eaten.
- I've been to Berlin three times. I went last March.
- While we were waiting, someone took our table.
- I hadn't realised how late it was.

A • PRACTISE — complete each one

- 1 I _____ (wait) at the station when I _____ (see) _____
- 2 By the time I arrived, she _____ (already / leave). _____
- 3 I _____ (never / try) sushi before I _____
- 4 We _____ (live) here for three years. Before that we _____
- 5 I _____ (lose) my keys yesterday, so I _____

B • FIND THE ERROR — one word is wrong in each

- 1 I have finished my work two hours ago. _____
- 2 When I was arriving, the meeting started already. _____
- 3 I am here since Monday. _____

C • MAKE IT YOURS — three sentences about your real life

D • SAY IT WITHOUT THINKING. Cover section C. Say your three sentences out loud from memory, then say three new ones. Repeat until none of them need a pause in the middle. This is the only step that makes the grammar automatic.

1 So this happened last...

2 At first I thought...

3 And then, out of nowhere...

4 In the end it turned out...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Choose a real story. Write only four words on the page — the four beats, nothing else.
- ☐ Tell it out loud from the four words. Two minutes.
- ☐ Tell it again in half the time. Cut everything that is not the point.
- ☐ Write the short version down, using all four of today's phrases.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Tell the same story to a real person and watch where they lose interest.
- ☐ BONUS · ChatGPT Voice: “I’ll tell you a story. Interrupt me with questions a real listener would ask.”

The version that keeps the point and drops the rest.

LISTEN

TODAY'S GOAL Notice the small phrases that hold a story together.

♥ LISTEN FOR THESE — TICK EACH ONE YOU HEAR, THEN WRITE THE FULL SENTENCE

1 You're not going to believe this.

.....

2 Long story short...

.....

3 Anyway, so...

.....

4 The funny thing is...

.....

WHAT TO FIND “storytelling podcast English real story”

Podcast app or YouTube · storytelling shows, interviews, stand-up sets · length: 7–8 min, natural pace

1 listen once, no subtitles

2 never pause

3 write what you understood

4 listen again

5 catch 3–5 chunks

6 now check the transcript

7 what did you miss, and why

8 shadow 20–40 seconds

9 retell it without looking

☆ CORE

30–40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Steps 1–9 above. Do not read the transcript before step 6, however tempting.
- ☐ Collect 5 chunks that moved the story forward rather than described anything.
- ☐ Mark every point where the speaker jumped back in time. How did they signal it?
- ☐ Retell the story in 60 seconds, out loud, nothing on screen.

BONUS

10–20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Review · +1 DAY on yesterday's chunks.
- ☐ Listen at 1.15x. Storytelling speech is fast — get used to it.

STORY GLUE

The little phrases that hold a story together. Not the content words.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

💖 TODAY'S PHRASES — WRITE YOUR OWN VERSION UNDERNEATH

- 1 A friend of mine once...
- 2 Apparently what happened was...
- 3 By the time he...
- 4 That's when...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Read a short true story: a news feature, a Reddit story, a magazine piece. 600–800 words.
- ☐ Retell it out loud in 45 seconds.
- ☐ Retell it again in 20 seconds. Only what someone needs to hear.
- ☐ Log five chunks, including two time expressions.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Write the 20-second version and count the words. Under 60?
- ☐ Tell it as if it happened to you. Change the pronouns and see what breaks.

Only what someone actually needs to hear. Nothing else survives.

① The first time I ever...

② I'll never forget...

③ It was one of those days when...

④ Looking back, I should have...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Tell three stories out loud: a good day, a bad day, an embarrassing one. About a minute each.
- ☐ Pick the best one and tell it again for three full minutes without stopping.
- ☐ DRILL · RANDOM TOPIC. Open a book at any page, take the first noun, tell a true story about it. Five seconds to start.
- ☐ Record the three-minute story. Do not re-record.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ BONUS · ChatGPT Voice: “Ask me to tell you about a time something went wrong. Then ask three follow-up questions I could not predict.”
- ☐ Listen back and mark every point where the tense slipped.

Which tense broke, and what you said instead. Then write the correct version.

① I was walking home when...

② I'd already left by the time...

③ While we were waiting...

④ I hadn't realised that...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Cheat sheet A and B. The present perfect / past simple contrast is the part to get right.
- ☐ Section C: three sentences about ONE real event, using all three past tenses.
- ☐ Section D: cover the page and tell that whole event out loud in 45 seconds.
- ☐ Tell it again. Any sentence that needed a pause, say five more like it.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Review · +3 DAYS on this week's chunks.
- ☐ Write five "by the time..." sentences about your real life.

One real event. No invented textbook people.

SOUND NATURAL

TODAY'S GOAL Say -ed endings without adding a syllable.

♥ SAY THESE — THREE GROUPS, THREE DIFFERENT ENDINGS

1 walked / worked / asked — /t/

2 lived / opened / arrived — /d/

3 wanted / decided / started — /ɪd/

4 I walked home and called her.

RECOGNISE ONLY — don't copy these used to → “yoosta” in fast speech.

Whole endings vanish between consonants.

Recognise it. Do not aim for it.

PRACTISE SAYING — aim for this walked, worked, asked — one syllable, /t/ at the end.

lived, opened, arrived — one syllable, /d/.

wanted, decided, started — two syllables, /ɪd/.

☆ CORE

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Say each group out loud five times. Only the third group gets an extra syllable.
- ☐ Check yourself on YouGlish, or ask ChatGPT Voice “Say these six past tense verbs naturally.”
- ☐ Read yesterday's three sentences aloud, checking every single ending.
- ☐ Record 45 seconds of your Thursday story and listen only for the endings.

BONUS

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Read a paragraph of past-tense text out loud, marking every ending first.
- ☐ Drill the one group your mouth resists, ten times.

SOUND NOTES

Which endings you were adding an extra syllable to — and how it felt to stop.

① I'm halfway through...

② The biggest change so far is...

③ I used to... but now I...

4 For the next four weeks...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Review · +7 DAYS on this week, and pull ten chunks from weeks 1–3 at random. Retrieve them cold.
- ☐ Choose five phrases for next week.
- ☐ Tell your best story of the week to a real person, or to camera.
- ☐ Fill in the week review page. This is the WEEK 4 column on the poster — copy the three numbers across.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Compare your week 1 and week 4 numbers. Write one sentence about what actually moved.
- ☐ Colour in the poster. Half the sheet should have colour on it now.

What is easier now than on day one. Be concrete — no “I feel better”.

In the end it turned out...

- ☐ verb tense
- ☐ prepositions
- ☐ repeated vocabulary
- ☐ articles
- ☐ sentence linking
- ☐ unnatural translation

"Correct my English but keep my meaning and my level. First show my mistakes, then explain the three most important recurring problems, then give me a corrected version. Do not rewrite everything in advanced English."

SAY EACH ONE OUT LOUD TOO

Only phrases you actually met — in listening, reading, a conversation, or a word you wanted and could not find.
Whole chunks, not single words. Tick a review box only when you retrieved it without looking at the page.

HOW TO REVIEW — pick one, never just re-read

Cover it and recall · finish a sentence with it · use it in a brand-new sentence · work it into a 60-second monologue · answer a question with it.

HOW TO REVIEW — pick one, never just re-read

Cover it and recall · finish a sentence with it · use it in a brand-new sentence · work it into a 60-second monologue · answer a question with it.

FIVE I MUST USE OUT LOUD NEXT WEEK

FIVE I MUST USE OUT LOUD NEXT WEEK

COMING BACK THIS WEEK · a sample from weeks 1-3 — find those pages, cover the English, and retrieve five of them out loud before Sunday.

WEEK REVIEW

DAYS I SHOWED UP — COLOUR ONE FLOWER PER DAY

MON

TUE

WED

THU

FRI

SAT

SUN

MEASURE IT — the same seven numbers every week

Longest no-stop speaking min sec Active phrases I actually used

Translating in my head ☐ constantly ☐ often ☐ sometimes ☐ rarely

Listening without subtitles % Confidence speaking 1 2 3 4 5

Grammar mistake I keep making

Hardest sound or rhythm feature

Something I said easily

.....

.....

.....

Where I got stuck

.....

.....

.....

Five things I can say now that I could not say on Monday

1

2

3

4

5

Next week I will change one thing

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

CARRY FORWARD

Copy your five phrases onto next Monday's page. If you did not use last week's five, they come with you again.

WEEK 05

THINK IN ENGLISH

Work and problems — explaining, asking, solving

THIS WEEK'S ONE PROMISE

When a word is missing you will explain around it in English, not reach for your own language.

GRAMMAR

Modals for politeness and for guessing

SPEAKING TARGET

problem → solution

WRITING

150–200 w, work message

WEEK OF

7 DAYS

Modals for politeness and for guessing

Two jobs, same small words. Politeness: could, would, might make a request or suggestion softer, which is how requests actually sound at work. Speculation: must, might, can't say how sure you are about something you do not know.

THE FORMULA

POLITE: Would it be possible to...? · It might be worth... · Could we...? SURE: it must be · POSSIBLE: it might / could be · IMPOSSIBLE: it can't be

THE MISTAKE ALMOST EVERYONE MAKES

~~You must send me the file today. I think maybe he is ill.~~

Would you be able to send me the file today? · He must be ill — he never misses a Monday.

HOW IT SOUNDS IN REAL ENGLISH

- Would it be possible to move our call to Thursday?
- It might be worth checking with the supplier first.
- That can't be right — we paid it last month.
- She must be exhausted; she's been travelling all week.
- I was wondering whether you'd had a chance to look at it.

A • PRACTISE — complete each one

- 1 Would it be possible to _____ ? (a real request you need to make) _____
- 2 It might be worth _____ before we _____
- 3 That can't be right, because _____
- 4 He _____ (must / be) busy — he _____
- 5 I was wondering whether _____

B • FIND THE ERROR — one word is wrong in each

- 1 Can you to send me the report, please? _____
- 2 Maybe he must be at home now. _____
- 3 I would like that you help me. _____

C • MAKE IT YOURS — three sentences about your real life

D • SAY IT WITHOUT THINKING. Cover section C. Say your three sentences out loud from memory, then say three new ones. Repeat until none of them need a pause in the middle. This is the only step that makes the grammar automatic.

1 Basically, my job is to...

2 I'm responsible for...

3 Day to day, I mostly...

4 The tricky part is...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Explain your work out loud twice: once to a ten-year-old, once to an expert. 30 seconds each.
- ☐ DRILL · PARAPHRASE CHALLENGE. Explain three tools or terms you use daily without naming them.
- ☐ Write your four phrases with real detail from your own job.
- ☐ Say the expert version again, no notes, in under 30 seconds.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ BONUS · ChatGPT Voice: “I’ll explain my job. Ask me the three questions a client would ask, then tell me what was unclear.”
 - ☐ Explain the part of your work you find hardest to describe. Twice.

Two versions: the simple one on top, the detailed one underneath.

TODAY'S GOAL Follow a real conversation about a problem, and how people manage it.

♥ LISTEN FOR THESE — TICK EACH ONE YOU HEAR, THEN WRITE THE FULL SENTENCE

1 We're running into...

2 The issue is that...

3 Can we circle back to...

4 Just to be clear...

WHAT TO FIND “workplace English conversation solving a problem”

YouTube · business English channels, real meeting recordings, work podcasts · length: 8–9 min, two or more speakers

1 listen once, no subtitles

2 never pause

3 write what you understood

4 listen again

5 catch 3–5 chunks

6 now check the transcript

7 what did you miss, and why

8 shadow 20–40 seconds

9 retell it without looking

☆ CORE

30–40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Steps 1–9 above. No subtitles at all until step 6, even if you lose the thread.
- ☐ Collect 5 chunks for managing a conversation: interrupting, checking, buying time.
- ☐ Note who steered the conversation and which phrase they used to do it.
- ☐ Retell the problem and the outcome in 60 seconds.

BONUS

10–20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Review · +1 DAY.
- ☐ Listen again and write the one sentence you would have said in that meeting.

MEETING PHRASES

Phrases for interrupting, checking and buying yourself time.

💖 TODAY'S PHRASES — WRITE YOUR OWN VERSION UNDERNEATH

- ④ If that doesn't work...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Read something instructional in English: a how-to guide, documentation, a troubleshooting thread.
- ☐ Close it. Explain the solution out loud as if training a new colleague.
- ☐ Do it again in half the time, keeping every step.
- ☐ Log five chunks, including two sequencing phrases.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Explain it to someone who does not work in your field and watch where they frown.
- ☐ Write the steps as five short numbered lines.

Steps in order, in your words. Someone should be able to follow them.

1 What I'd suggest is...

2) Have we considered...?

3 The risk there is...

4 Let's say, for argument's sake...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Take a real problem you are dealing with. Describe it out loud in 60 seconds.
- ☐ Then three options out loud, each with its risk. Then your recommendation.
- ☐ DRILL · ONE-MINUTE NO-STOP on a problem you have not thought about before.
- ☐ Notice every time you nearly translated. Mark it with a tick in the margin.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ BONUS · ChatGPT Voice: “I’ll describe a problem at work. Play a sceptical colleague and challenge my solution for five minutes.”
- ☐ Record the recommendation only, 30 seconds, and make it sound decisive.

Problem at the top, options in the middle, your decision last.

① Would it be possible to...?

② It might be worth...

3 We tend to...

④ I was wondering whether...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Cheat sheet A and B.
- ☐ Section C: take three blunt sentences you would actually say at work and soften them.
- ☐ Section D: cover the page, say all three, then guess out loud about three things you do not know.
- ☐ Say the blunt version and the polite version back to back. Hear the difference.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Review · +3 DAYS.
- ☐ Rewrite a real message you sent last week using two modals.

Direct version on the line, polite version underneath it.

SOUND NATURAL

TODAY'S GOAL Group your words into thoughts, and pause between them.

♥ SAY THESE — SLOWLY, WITH A REAL PAUSE IN THE MIDDLE

1 Sorry, could you say that again?

2 Just so I understand...

3 Let me check I've got this right.

4 I'll get back to you on that.

RECOGNISE ONLY — don't copy these

"Would you" often sounds like "wudja".

"what do you" → "whaddaya".

Hear it, decode it, move on.

PRACTISE SAYING — aim for this

Just so I understand / you need it by Friday / not Thursday.

Pause at the slashes. Do not pause anywhere else. Thought groups make you clear. Speed does not.

☆ CORE

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Mark the thought groups in each sentence with a slash before you say it.
- ☐ Check a native version on YouGlish, or ask ChatGPT Voice for the natural rhythm.
- ☐ LISTEN → COPY → RECORD → COMPARE. Compare your pauses, not your accent.
- ☐ Record a 60-second voicemail about a real work problem, pausing on purpose.

BONUS

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Listen back and mark where you sped up. That is where a listener loses you.
- ☐ Say your longest sentence of the week with three deliberate pauses.

SOUND NOTES

Where you sped up, and where a pause would have helped.

💖 TODAY'S PHRASES — WRITE YOUR OWN VERSION UNDERNEATH

- ① I caught myself translating when...

② It came out automatically.

3 I got stuck on... so I said...

4 Next week I'll practise...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Review · +7 DAYS on this week, +14 DAYS on week 3.
- ☐ Choose five phrases for next week.
- ☐ Speak for two minutes about your work, in English, no notes, no preparation.
- ☐ Fill in the week review page. The translation checkbox is the one that matters this week.

10-20 MIN • OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Write 80 words on the moment English arrived first, before your own language.
- ☐ Colour in the poster.

Where the English came first — and where you had to go round the houses.

Let me know what you think.

WRITE Write a real message to a colleague, a client or a landlord: explain a problem, say what caused it, propose two options and ask for a decision. Polite but not stiff. No greeting longer than one line.

- ☐ verb tense
- ☐ prepositions
- ☐ repeated vocabulary
- ☐ articles
- ☐ sentence linking
- ☐ unnatural translation

"Correct my English but keep my meaning and my level. First show my mistakes, then explain the three most important recurring problems, then give me a corrected version. Do not rewrite everything in advanced English."

SAY EACH ONE OUT LOUD TOO

Only phrases you actually met — in listening, reading, a conversation, or a word you wanted and could not find.
Whole chunks, not single words. Tick a review box only when you retrieved it without looking at the page.

HOW TO REVIEW — pick one, never just re-read
Cover it and recall · finish a sentence with it · use it in a brand-new sentence · work it into a 60-second monologue · answer a question with it.

HOW TO REVIEW — pick one, never just re-read

Cover it and recall · finish a sentence with it · use it in a brand-new sentence · work it into a 60-second monologue · answer a question with it.

FIVE I MUST USE OUT LOUD NEXT WEEK

FIVE I MUST USE OUT LOUD NEXT WEEK

COMING BACK THIS WEEK · weeks 3-4 phrases — find those pages, cover the English, and retrieve five of them out loud before Sunday.

WEEK REVIEW

DAYS I SHOWED UP — COLOUR ONE FLOWER PER DAY

MON

TUE

WED

THU

FRI

SAT

SUN

MEASURE IT — the same seven numbers every week

Longest no-stop speaking min sec Active phrases I actually used

Translating in my head ☐ constantly ☐ often ☐ sometimes ☐ rarely

Listening without subtitles % Confidence speaking 1 2 3 4 5

Grammar mistake I keep making

Hardest sound or rhythm feature

Something I said easily

.....

.....

.....

Where I got stuck

.....

.....

.....

Five things I can say now that I could not say on Monday

1

2

3

4

5

Next week I will change one thing

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

CARRY FORWARD

Copy your five phrases onto next Monday's page. If you did not use last week's five, they come with you again.

WEEK 06

THINK IN ENGLISH

Plans, guesses and what-ifs

THIS WEEK'S ONE PROMISE

You will talk about things that have not happened yet without slowing down to build the sentence.

GRAMMAR

Future forms and the three conditionals

SPEAKING TARGET

hypotheticals, 3 min

WRITING

170–200 w, what-if scenario

WEEK OF

7 DAYS

Future forms and the three conditionals

Future: going to for plans already made, will for decisions made as you speak, present continuous for arrangements with a time and place. Conditionals: type 1 is real and likely, type 2 is imaginary now, type 3 is a finished regret.

THE FORMULA

1st: If + present, will... 2nd: If + past, would... 3rd: If + had + participle, would have + participle

THE MISTAKE ALMOST EVERYONE MAKES

~~If I will have time, I would come. If I would know, I told you.~~

If I have time, I'll come. · If I'd known, I would have told you.

HOW IT SOUNDS IN REAL ENGLISH

- If it rains, I'll take the car.
- If I were you, I'd ask for more time.
- If I hadn't moved here, I wouldn't have met her.
- I'm meeting them at six — it's already arranged.
- Unless something changes, we're staying.

A • PRACTISE — complete each one

- 1 If I _____ (finish) early today, I _____
- 2 If I were you, I _____ (not / accept) _____
- 3 If I _____ (not / start) this workbook, I _____
- 4 I _____ (see) the dentist on Tuesday at nine. (arrangement) _____
- 5 Unless _____, I'll _____

B • FIND THE ERROR — one word is wrong in each

- 1 If I will see him, I will tell him. _____
- 2 If I would have known, I would come. _____
- 3 I will meet my sister tomorrow at seven, it is arranged. _____

C • MAKE IT YOURS — three sentences about your real life

D • SAY IT WITHOUT THINKING. Cover section C. Say your three sentences out loud from memory, then say three new ones. Repeat until none of them need a pause in the middle. This is the only step that makes the grammar automatic.

① I'm planning to...

② I'm hoping to... by...

③ There's a chance I might...

4 Either way, I'll...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Draw a two-branch tree in the box: one thing that might happen, and what you do in each case.
- ☐ Speak both branches out loud, 60 seconds each, from the tree only.
- ☐ Then describe your next six months in 90 seconds without the tree.
- ☐ Use going to for real plans and will for decisions you make while speaking. Notice which you reach for.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Add a third branch: the outcome you are avoiding thinking about. Speak that one too.
- ☐ BONUS · ChatGPT Voice: “Ask me about my plans, then ask what I’d do if each one fell through.”

Branches on the left, what you would do on the right.

TODAY'S GOAL Hear how people avoid committing to anything about the future.

♥ LISTEN FOR THESE — TICK EACH ONE YOU HEAR, THEN WRITE THE FULL SENTENCE

1 It's looking likely that...

.....

2 I doubt it, to be honest.

.....

3 We'll see how it goes.

.....

4 Chances are...

.....

WHAT TO FIND “English discussion predictions future of work”

YouTube · TED talks, interviews, panel discussions · length: 9-10 min, one speaker plus questions

1 listen once, no subtitles

2 never pause

3 write what you understood

4 listen again

5 catch 3-5 chunks

6 now check the transcript

7 what did you miss, and why

8 shadow 20-40 seconds

9 retell it without looking

☆ CORE

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Steps 1-9 above. Ten minutes now — split it into two halves if you need to.
- ☐ Collect 5 chunks that say maybe without saying maybe.
- ☐ Mark how sure the speaker was each time: sure, probably, doubtful.
- ☐ Retell their main prediction in 60 seconds, then say whether you believe it.

BONUS

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Review · +1 DAY.
- ☐ Listen at 1.2x. Note whether you lose meaning or just comfort.

MAYBE PHRASES

Ways of saying maybe without saying maybe, sorted by how sure they sound.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

① They're expecting...

② If that happens, then...

③ It could well be that...

④ I wouldn't be surprised if...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Read one article that predicts something in your field or city. 600–800 words.
- ☐ Retell the prediction out loud, fairly, in three sentences.
- ☐ Then say what you actually think will happen, and what you would bet on.
- ☐ Log five chunks, including two that show how sure someone is.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Write two sentences saying why the article might be wrong.
- ☐ Say your prediction as if you were sure, then as if you doubted it.

What you think will happen, and what you would actually bet money on.

SPEAKING DAY

TODAY'S GOAL Three minutes of what-ifs about your own life, unprepared.

♥ TODAY'S PHRASES — WRITE YOUR OWN VERSION UNDERNEATH

1 If I had more time, I'd...

2 If I'd known, I would have...

3 Suppose I moved to...

4 I'd probably end up...

☆ CORE

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ DRILL · RANDOM TOPIC. "What would you do with a free year?" Five seconds to start, three minutes to talk.
- ☐ Second question, no prep: "What would you change about the last five years?" Two minutes.
- ☐ Use one second conditional and one third conditional in each answer.
- ☐ When a conditional collapses mid-sentence, rebuild it out loud and carry on.

BONUS

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ BONUS · ChatGPT Voice: "Give me an unexpected B1-B2 hypothetical question. Give me five seconds to start. Keep asking follow-ups. Do not let me prepare."
- ☐ Record the three-minute answer and count the conditionals that came out clean.

WHERE I GOT STUCK

The conditional that collapsed. Rebuild it properly here.

① If it rains, I'll...

2 If I were you, I'd...

③ If I hadn't..., I wouldn't be...

4 Unless something changes...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Cheat sheet A and B. Watch the “if I will” trap — it never happens in English.
- ☐ Section C: three conditionals about your actual situation, one of each type.
- ☐ Section D: cover the page. Say all three, then three new ones, fully contracted (I’d, wouldn’t).
- ☐ Any conditional that needed a pause in the middle — say five more of that type.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Review · +3 DAYS.
 - ☐ Write five third conditionals about real decisions you regret. Say them out loud once, then move on.

Real decisions, real regrets. Type 1, type 2, type 3.

SOUND NATURAL

TODAY'S GOAL Contractions, because conditionals are impossible without them.

♥ SAY THESE — EVERY CONTRACTION CLEAN AND AUDIBLE

1 If I'd known, I would have told you.

2 You'll be fine.

3 I wouldn't worry about it.

4 We hadn't even started.

RECOGNISE ONLY — don't copy these

I'd've, shouldn't've, wouldn't'a — real, but not your target.

Native speakers compress "would have" to almost nothing.

Recognise it in listening. Say the clean version.

PRACTISE SAYING — aim for this

I'd · you'll · wouldn't · hadn't — say all four cleanly.

If I'd known, I would have told you.

Clean contractions, not swallowed ones.

☆ CORE

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Say each sentence five times, contracted, at speaking speed.
- ☐ Check the natural version on YouGlish or with ChatGPT Voice.
- ☐ LISTEN → COPY → RECORD → COMPARE.
- ☐ Say yesterday's three conditionals again, fully contracted this time.

BONUS

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Find the contraction your mouth refuses and drill it ten times inside a full sentence.
- ☐ Record 60 seconds of hypothetical speech and count the uncontracted forms.

SOUND NOTES

Which contraction your mouth refused, and what you did about it.

① By the end of this I want to...

② The gap now is...

③ I no longer need to...

4 For the last two weeks...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Review · +7 DAYS on this week, +14 DAYS on week 4.
- ☐ Choose five phrases for next week. Weeks 7–8 are where you use them under pressure.
- ☐ Speak for two and a half minutes about where you will be in a year.
- ☐ Fill in the week review page. Compare the seven numbers with week 1 and week 4.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Reread your week 1 review page. Write one sentence about the difference.
- ☐ Colour in the poster.

What you can do now that week-one you could not. Specifics only.

Only phrases you actually met — in listening, reading, a conversation, or a word you wanted and could not find.
Whole chunks, not single words. Tick a review box only when you retrieved it without looking at the page.

HOW TO REVIEW — pick one, never just re-read

Cover it and recall · finish a sentence with it · use it in a brand-new sentence · work it into a 60-second monologue · answer a question with it.

HOW TO REVIEW — pick one, never just re-read

Cover it and recall · finish a sentence with it · use it in a brand-new sentence · work it into a 60-second monologue · answer a question with it.

FIVE I MUST USE OUT LOUD NEXT WEEK

FIVE I MUST USE OUT LOUD NEXT WEEK

COMING BACK THIS WEEK · weeks 4-5 phrases — find those pages, cover the English, and retrieve five of them out loud before Sunday.

MON

TUE

WED

THU

FRI

SAT

SUN

Hardest sound or rhythm feature

Copy your five phrases onto next Monday's page. If you did not use last week's five, they come with you again.

WEEK 07

FLUENCY

Discussing ideas — abstract topics, longer turns

THIS WEEK'S ONE PROMISE

You will speak for at least three minutes on an unprepared topic, every single day.

GRAMMAR

Relative clauses and linking ideas

SPEAKING TARGET

3–5 min argument

WRITING

180–220 w, argue a position

WEEK OF

7 DAYS

Relative clauses and linking ideas

This is what turns short answers into long turns. Relative clauses let you add information without stopping (the man who..., the thing that...). Linkers let you change direction mid-turn instead of ending the sentence and starting again.

THE FORMULA

people → who · things → that / which · places → where · possession → whose CONTRAST:
however · whereas · that said EMPHASIS: in fact
· which is why

THE MISTAKE ALMOST EVERYONE MAKES

~~The people which I work with are nice. I like it, but however it is expensive.~~

The people I work with are nice. · I like it. That said, it's expensive.

HOW IT SOUNDS IN REAL ENGLISH

- The thing that annoys me most is the waiting.
- It's a city where nobody stays long.
- She's the one whose idea it was.
- Whereas in my country, nobody would ask that.
- It's expensive, which is why I stopped going.

A • PRACTISE — complete each one

- 1 The thing that _____ most about my job is _____
- 2 I work with people who _____
- 3 It's a place where _____
- 4 Prices went up. That said, _____
- 5 I stopped doing it, which is why _____

B • FIND THE ERROR — one word is wrong in each

- 1 The book which I read it last week was great. _____
- 2 My friend, that lives in Rome, is coming. _____
- 3 It is cheap, but however the quality is bad. _____

C • MAKE IT YOURS — three sentences about your real life

D • SAY IT WITHOUT THINKING. Cover section C. Say your three sentences out loud from memory, then say three new ones. Repeat until none of them need a pause in the middle. This is the only step that makes the grammar automatic.

① There are two sides to this.

② It largely depends on...

③ To take a step back...

④ The underlying issue is...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Write four abstract topics on scraps of paper: e.g. privacy, ambition, cities, education. Fold them.
- ☐ Pick one blind. Five seconds, then speak for three minutes. Do not stop.
- ☐ Pick a second one. Three minutes again, using two relative clauses on purpose.
- ☐ Note the exact second you first ran out of things to say. That is the number to beat.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Third card, three minutes, arguing the side you disagree with.
- ☐ BONUS · ChatGPT Voice: “Give me an abstract B1–B2 topic. Give me five seconds, then let me talk for three minutes without interrupting.”

Topic on the first line. Notes go here AFTER you spoke, never before.

LISTEN

TODAY'S GOAL Follow people who disagree, and hear how they take the floor.

♥ LISTEN FOR THESE — TICK EACH ONE YOU HEAR, THEN WRITE THE FULL SENTENCE

- 1 I'd push back on that.
.....
- 2 That's exactly my point.
.....
- 3 Can I just add one thing?
.....
- 4 Sorry, go on.
.....

WHAT TO FIND "English debate discussion two people disagreeing"

YouTube or podcasts · panel debates, interview shows, discussion podcasts · length: 10–12 min, several speakers, overlapping

- 1 listen once, no subtitles
- 2 never pause
- 3 write what you understood
- 4 listen again
- 5 catch 3–5 chunks
- 6 now check the transcript
- 7 what did you miss, and why
- 8 shadow 20–40 seconds
- 9 retell it without looking

☆ CORE

30–40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Steps 1–9 above. Speakers will talk over each other. Follow the argument, not every word.
- ☐ Collect 5 chunks used to take or hand over the floor.
- ☐ Write down how they interrupted without sounding rude.
- ☐ Retell both sides of the disagreement in 90 seconds.

BONUS

10–20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Review · +1 DAY.
- ☐ Listen once more with the transcript and find the phrase you completely missed.

HOLDING THE FLOOR

How they interrupted without being rude — the exact words.

💖 TODAY'S PHRASES — WRITE YOUR OWN VERSION UNDERNEATH

- 1 The author claims that...
- 2 The evidence for that is thin...
- 3 Where I'd agree is...
- 4 A better question might be...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Read a long-form argument: an opinion column, an essay, a detailed review. 800–1000 words.
- ☐ Summarise their case out loud in three sentences, fairly.
- ☐ Rebut it in 90 seconds, point by point, out loud.
- ☐ Log five chunks, at least three of them linkers.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Write the strongest counter-argument against your own rebuttal.
- ☐ Read your favourite paragraph out loud as if it were a speech.

Their claim, your answer, your example. In that order.

① Fair enough, but consider...

② I take your point about...

③ Let's agree to differ.

④ What makes you say that?

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Have a real conversation in English — a person, a language exchange, or ChatGPT Voice. Ten minutes minimum.
- ☐ Disagree with something politely, on purpose, at least twice.
- ☐ DRILL · REPAIR IT. Every time you make a mistake, correct it mid-flow and continue. No restarting.
- ☐ Mark the moment you wanted to switch to your own language, and write what you said instead.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ BONUS · ChatGPT Voice: “Debate me for five minutes. Take the opposite side of whatever I say and push back hard but politely.”
- ☐ Record the last three minutes and listen for filled pauses in English.

The moment you nearly switched language. What you said instead.

① That said, I still...

② Whereas in my country...

③ In fact, the opposite is true.

4 Which is why I...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Cheat sheet A and B. The double-subject error (“the book which I read it”) is the one to kill.
- ☐ Section C: three long sentences, each with a relative clause and a linker.
- ☐ Section D: cover the page and say them. Then say three new ones, longer.
- ☐ Any sentence that broke in the middle — say it again slowly, then at speed.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Review · +3 DAYS.
- ☐ Take one short sentence and extend it three times with relative clauses.

Do not let them break in the middle. If one does, rewrite it here.

SOUND NATURAL

TODAY'S GOAL Fill your pauses in English instead of stopping dead.

♥ SAY THESE — THESE ARE YOUR REPLACEMENTS FOR SILENCE

1 How can I put this...

2 What's the word...

3 I mean, sort of...

4 Give me a second.

RECOGNISE ONLY — don't copy these

Native speakers pause constantly. Fluency is not speed.

You will hear "um, like, sort of" everywhere.

A filled pause is not a mistake.

PRACTISE SAYING — aim for this

How can I put this...

What's the word...

Give me a second.

Say these instead of going silent.

☆ CORE

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Write your own-language fillers on the left of the box, and an English replacement for each on the right.
- ☐ Speak for 90 seconds on any topic. Every pause must be filled in English.
- ☐ Record it. Count the silences and count the fillers.
- ☐ Do it again and beat your own number.

BONUS

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Ask ChatGPT Voice: "Say these four hesitation phrases naturally, then use each one in a sentence."
- ☐ Speak for two minutes with no silences longer than two seconds.

SOUND NOTES

Your fillers in your own language, and their English replacements.

① The only thing still stopping me is...

② I can now... without thinking.

③ I want to sound less...

4 Final week: I will...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Review · +7 DAYS on this week, +14 DAYS on week 5.
- ☐ Choose five phrases for the final week.
- ☐ Speak for four minutes on any topic. Do not stop once.
- ☐ Fill in the week review page. Name the one habit you will break next week.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Listen to a recording from week 3 and one from this week. Write down two differences.
- ☐ Colour in the poster — one row left.

The one habit you are going to break in the final week.

Only phrases you actually met — in listening, reading, a conversation, or a word you wanted and could not find.
Whole chunks, not single words. Tick a review box only when you retrieved it without looking at the page.

HOW TO REVIEW — pick one, never just re-read

Cover it and recall · finish a sentence with it · use it in a brand-new sentence · work it into a 60-second monologue · answer a question with it.

HOW TO REVIEW — pick one, never just re-read

Cover it and recall · finish a sentence with it · use it in a brand-new sentence · work it into a 60-second monologue · answer a question with it.

FIVE I MUST USE OUT LOUD NEXT WEEK

FIVE I MUST USE OUT LOUD NEXT WEEK

COMING BACK THIS WEEK · weeks 5-6 phrases — find those pages, cover the English, and retrieve five of them out loud before Sunday.

WEEK REVIEW

DAYS I SHOWED UP — COLOUR ONE FLOWER PER DAY

MON

TUE

WED

THU

FRI

SAT

SUN

MEASURE IT — the same seven numbers every week

Longest no-stop speaking min sec Active phrases I actually used

Translating in my head ☐ constantly ☐ often ☐ sometimes ☐ rarely

Listening without subtitles % Confidence speaking 1 2 3 4 5

Grammar mistake I keep making

Hardest sound or rhythm feature

Something I said easily

.....

.....

.....

Where I got stuck

.....

.....

.....

Five things I can say now that I could not say on Monday

1

2

3

4

5

Next week I will change one thing

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

CARRY FORWARD

Copy your five phrases onto next Monday's page. If you did not use last week's five, they come with you again.

WEEK 08

FLUENCY

Unscripted — real life, real people, no preparation

THIS WEEK'S ONE PROMISE

You will use English with a real person on at least four of these seven days.

GRAMMAR

Personal error audit — your own grammar, not a syllabus

SPEAKING TARGET

5+ min unscripted

WRITING

200–250 w, free writing

WEEK OF

7 DAYS

Personal error audit — your own grammar, not a syllabus

You now have eight weeks of recordings and writing, which means evidence. This week you learn no new structures and instead fix the two or three errors that actually recur in your own speech.

THE FORMULA

1 listen to three recordings from weeks 5–7, reread three writing pages 2 write every error you find below, then group them 3 the ones appearing three times or more are your targets all week

THE MISTAKE ALMOST EVERYONE MAKES

~~Guessing which grammar you need.~~

Counting which errors you actually make, then drilling only those.

HOW IT SOUNDS IN REAL ENGLISH

- Patterns worth looking for: articles — a / the / nothing at all
- prepositions — in / on / at, depend on, interested in
- present perfect with a finished time (“I have seen him yesterday”)
- third person -s vanishing under pressure · word order in questions

A • PRACTISE — complete each one

- 1 ERROR 1 I keep saying _____ instead of _____
- 2 ERROR 2 I keep saying _____ instead of _____
- 3 ERROR 3 I keep saying _____ instead of _____
- 4 The one that appears most often is _____
- 5 It usually happens when I’m _____

B • FIND THE ERROR — one word is wrong in each

- 1 Now write five correct sentences for error 1 — on the lines in section C. _____
- 2 Then five for error 2. Say every one out loud twice. _____
- 3 Come back on Sunday and check whether they held up in real speech. _____

C • MAKE IT YOURS — three sentences about your real life

D • SAY IT WITHOUT THINKING. Cover section C. Say your three sentences out loud from memory, then say three new ones. Repeat until none of them need a pause in the middle. This is the only step that makes the grammar automatic.

① Sorry to bother you — do you know...?

② Is this seat taken?

③ How's your day going?

4 Nice one, thanks.

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Say something in English to one real person today. Online counts; a comment does not.
- ☐ Before you do it, say your opening line out loud three times.
- ☐ Afterwards, write down what you actually said, mistakes included.
- ☐ Watch for your audited errors. Did either of them appear?

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ BONUS · ChatGPT Voice: “Role-play a stranger at a bus stop. Be a bit unhelpful so I have to keep the conversation going.”
- ☐ Do it a second time with a different opening line.

The real conversation, mistakes included. Not the version you wish you had said.

LISTEN

TODAY'S GOAL Understand fast, unclear, overlapping speech with no help.

♥ LISTEN FOR THESE — TICK EACH ONE YOU HEAR, THEN WRITE THE FULL SENTENCE

1 Say that again?

.....

2 You've lost me.

.....

3 Ah, got it.

.....

4 No worries.

.....

WHAT TO FIND "English conversation different accents fast speech"

YouTube · mix accents on purpose: British, Irish, American, Indian, Australian · length: 12 min, fast, two accents, no subtitles available

1 listen once, no subtitles

2 never pause

3 write what you understood

4 listen again

5 catch 3-5 chunks

6 now check the transcript

7 what did you miss, and why

8 shadow 20-40 seconds

9 retell it without looking

☆ CORE

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Steps 1-9 above, at 1.25x speed, no subtitles at any point until step 6.
- ☐ Collect 5 chunks. Log them — the last five of the whole course.
- ☐ Write what you missed and WHY: speed, accent, vocabulary, or reduced sounds.
- ☐ Shadow 40 seconds of the fastest speaker.

BONUS

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Review · +1 DAY.
- ☐ Find a clip in an accent you find hardest and give it four minutes.

WHAT I MISSED, AND WHY

Speed, accent, vocabulary or reduction? Name the real reason.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

💖 TODAY'S PHRASES — WRITE YOUR OWN VERSION UNDERNEATH

- ④ Not what I expected.

TODAY FELT      NEW CHUNK I LIKED

① So what have you been up to?

② Same here, honestly.

3 Tell me more about...

④ We should do this again.

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Have one conversation with no topic agreed in advance. Fifteen minutes.
- ☐ No preparing sentences in your head while the other person talks. Listen instead.
- ☐ DRILL · REPAIR IT + PARAPHRASE. Missing word? Explain around it and keep going. Never switch language.
- ☐ Afterwards write what surprised you about how it went.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ BONUS · ChatGPT Voice: “Have a 15-minute conversation with me. Change topic whenever you like without warning me.”
- ☐ Record five minutes of it and listen back once.

What surprised you. What you could do that you could not do in week one.

① I've been... for two years.

② I did that yesterday.

③ It depends on the situation.

④ I'm used to...

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Finish the personal error audit on this week's cheat sheet if you have not yet. Evidence, not memory.
- ☐ Write five correct sentences for each of your top two errors. Real content, your life.
- ☐ Say all ten out loud twice, then cover the page and say ten new ones.
- ☐ Record 60 seconds of free speech and count whether the errors appear.

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Review · +3 DAYS.
- ☐ Ask ChatGPT Voice: “I keep making this mistake: [error]. Ask me ten questions where I would need that structure to answer.”

Five for each error. Say them out loud before you write them down.

SOUND NATURAL

TODAY'S GOAL Record yourself and compare it with day one.

♥ SAY THESE — AND MEAN THEM, WITH REAL EXAMPLES

1 Eight weeks ago I couldn't...

2 Now I can...

3 I still need to work on...

4 I sound more...

RECOGNISE ONLY — don't copy these

Eight weeks does not remove an accent, and it does not need to.

Intelligibility and rhythm are the goal.

Clear beats native every time.

PRACTISE SAYING — aim for this

Your own week-1 sentences, said again today.

Same words, better rhythm and clearer thought groups.

That difference is the whole point.

☆ CORE

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Record two minutes on any topic. No preparation.
- ☐ Now play your week-one recording immediately after it.
- ☐ Write three differences you can actually hear. Not “better” — what changed.
- ☐ Pick the one rhythm feature still worth working on after this book ends.

BONUS

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Play both to someone else and ask what they notice.
- ☐ Record the same two minutes again, applying the one thing you just noticed.

SOUND NOTES

Three differences between then and now. Concrete, hearable, specific.

DAY 56

TODAY'S GOAL Close the eight weeks and decide what happens on Monday.

♥ TODAY'S PHRASES — WRITE YOUR OWN VERSION UNDERNEATH

1 Over eight weeks I...

2 The thing that worked was...

3 I'm no longer afraid to...

4 From here, my plan is...

☆ CORE

30-40 MIN · FINISH THESE AND THE DAY IS DONE

- ☐ Do the FINAL TEST pages before anything else. All four tasks, then the comparison table.
- ☐ Review · pull ten chunks from any week at random and retrieve them cold.
- ☐ Speak for five minutes about the whole eight weeks. No notes, no stopping.
- ☐ Sign the certificate. Then write your next eight weeks in three sentences.

BONUS

10-20 MIN · OPTIONAL, ALWAYS

- ☐ Choose the three weekly sessions you will keep: one speaking, one listening, one writing.
- ☐ Colour in the last row of the poster and put it somewhere you will keep seeing it.

WHAT HAPPENS NOW

Your next eight weeks, in three sentences. Specific days, specific tasks.

PHRASE LOG

Only phrases you actually met — in listening, reading, a conversation, or a word you wanted and could not find. Whole chunks, not single words. Tick a review box only when you retrieved it without looking at the page.

PHRASE OR CHUNK	WHAT IT MEANS (IN ENGLISH)	MY OWN SENTENCE	+1	+3	+7	+14
			☐	☐	☐	☐
			☐	☐	☐	☐
			☐	☐	☐	☐
			☐	☐	☐	☐
			☐	☐	☐	☐
			☐	☐	☐	☐
			☐	☐	☐	☐
			☐	☐	☐	☐
			☐	☐	☐	☐
			☐	☐	☐	☐
			☐	☐	☐	☐
			☐	☐	☐	☐
			☐	☐	☐	☐
			☐	☐	☐	☐
			☐	☐	☐	☐
			☐	☐	☐	☐
			☐	☐	☐	☐

HOW TO REVIEW — pick one, never just re-read
Cover it and recall · finish a sentence with it · use it in a brand-new sentence · work it into a 60-second monologue · answer a question with it.

FIVE I MUST USE OUT LOUD NEXT WEEK

COMING BACK THIS WEEK · a sample from every week — find those pages, cover the English, and retrieve five of them out loud before Sunday.

WEEK REVIEW

DAYS I SHOWED UP — COLOUR ONE FLOWER PER DAY

MON

TUE

WED

THU

FRI

SAT

SUN

MEASURE IT — the same seven numbers every week

Longest no-stop speaking min sec Active phrases I actually used

Translating in my head ☐ constantly ☐ often ☐ sometimes ☐ rarely

Listening without subtitles % Confidence speaking 1 2 3 4 5

Grammar mistake I keep making

Hardest sound or rhythm feature

Something I said easily

.....

.....

.....

Where I got stuck

.....

.....

.....

Five things I can say now that I could not say on Monday

1

2

3

4

5

Next week I will change one thing

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

CARRY FORWARD

Copy your five phrases onto next Monday's page. If you did not use last week's five, they come with you again.

FINAL TEST — SAME FOUR TASKS

Record everything first. Do not listen to your day 1 files until all four tasks are finished — hearing the old version changes how you speak.

A • SPEAKING — 3–5 minutes, no preparation

Same question as day 1: “Tell me about yourself, your life right now, and one thing you want to change.” Then keep going: what changed in the last eight weeks.

I SPOKE FOR TIMES I STOPPED TIMES I USED MY OWN LANGUAGE

B • STORY — 3 minutes

Something that happened in the last month. Chronology a stranger could follow, no notes, no restarts.

I SPOKE FOR TENSES THAT HELD UP

D • LISTENING — the same kind of clip, harder

Search “native English conversation everyday life” again, but take a clip with two speakers talking over each other. Four minutes, no subtitles, no pausing.

I UNDERSTOOD ABOUT % WHAT STILL MAKES IT HARD

C • WRITING — 180–250 words, no translator, no AI

Same shape as day 1: your last two weeks, and what you want from the next two months. Write it on the back of this sheet or in your notebook, then bring the word count here.

WORD COUNT MINUTES IT TOOK

DAY 1 vs DAY 56

Play both recordings back to back. Fill the numbers in from your own two folders, not from memory.

	DAY 1	DAY 56
Seconds I spoke before the first real stop
Times I stopped completely
Times I used my own language
Story: could a stranger follow the order of events?
Listening: % I understood, no subtitles
Writing: word count
Writing: minutes it took
Phrases from the logs I used without checking

WEEK 1 · WEEK 4 · WEEK 8 — copy from your week reviews

Longest no-stop

Translating

Listening %

Confidence 1-5

MY THREE RECURRING GRAMMAR PROBLEMS — and whether they are gone

1

2

3

What I can hear in my own voice, day 1 against day 56

Three concrete differences. Not “better” — write what actually changed.

What happens on Monday. The habit is the asset, not the book. Pick the three days of the week that worked best for you and keep them: one speaking, one listening, one writing. Consistency is what keeps retrieval fast.

CUT ALONG THE DOTTED LINES

STICKER SHEET

Colour them in, cut them out, stick them on the days you finished. Print on thicker paper if you have it.

SPOKE OUT LOUD

LISTENED TWICE

READ IT ALL

GRAMMAR DONE

RECORDED ME

SEVEN IN A ROW

NO TRANSLATING

WEEK COMPLETE

NO PREP, STILL SPOKE

TALKED TO A HUMAN

SHOWED UP ANYWAY

NO SUBTITLES

FINISHED THE SENTENCE

EXPLAINED AROUND IT

FIXED MY RHYTHM

CAUGHT MY OWN ERROR

PUT THIS ON YOUR WALL

56 DAYS

One heart per day. Colour it the moment you finish speaking out loud.

MON TUE WED THU FRI SAT SUN

WK 01

ACTIVATE

WK 02

ACTIVATE

WK 03

EXPRESS

WK 04

EXPRESS

WK 05

THINK

WK 06

THINK

WK 07

FLUENCY

WK 08

FLUENCY

THE THREE NUMBERS WORTH WATCHING — from your week reviews

LONGEST NO-STOP SPEAKING

WK1

WK4

WK8

LISTENING WITHOUT SUBTITLES

WK1

WK4

WK8

TRANSLATING IN MY HEAD

WK1

WK4

WK8

Seven in a row? Give yourself a sticker. Showing up on the days you do not feel like it is what makes retrieval faster — consistency does more for automatic English than any single long session.

EIGHT WEEKS. FIFTY-SIX DAYS.

YOU DID IT

This is to certify that finished all eight weeks, spoke English out loud on purpose, and stopped waiting to feel ready.

DATE

SIGNED BY ME

USE ENGLISH. DON'T JUST STUDY ENGLISH.